Small savory appetizers served before the meal, customarily with APPERITIFS OR COCKTAILS. They are usually one-or two-bite size and can be cold or hot. Hors d'oeuvre may be in the form of a fancy canape or as simple as a selection of crudites (as celery or carrot sticks). . The word "hors d'oeuvre" is properly used for both the singular and plural forms. The reason is that the term translates literally as (dishes) "outside the work (meal)" and no matter how many dishes there are, there is only one "work." In today's modern parlance, however, the plural is often spoken and written as hors d'oeuvres but no matter how you say it, Juan Meono, the Granada hors-d'oeuvre chef defines them this way for "Happy Hour" every Friday in the Granada Lounge. More, anyone?

Granada Sketch

Matin Tang has been a sketch artist here in San Francisco for over twenty years. I found him in the Buena Vista by the Hyde Street Cable Car turnaround in front of Ghirardelli Square. For two hours Martin will turn the lounge of the Granada into an art studio, pleasing everyone with his talent on Wednesday, August 6th between 2:30 and 4:30. Here are a few of the 30 sketches he did three years ago. Each sketch took approximately 3 minutes, what you think? How many people can you name? Make sure to join us, all free, compliments of The Granada.

Employee of the Month

Originally from Carson City, Nevada, a small town near Lake Tahoe in the Sierra's high desert, a little dry you might imagine, so coming to San Francisco's fog, many green plants and beautiful parks amazes Alice Jaramillo now as it did ten years ago; "loves it," she says. She enjoys many hobbies, her favorite, riding her bicycle everywhere. You often see Alice with her bike on her shoulder going through the lobby. Reading, crafts, music and movies round out her leisure time. "Among my most recent projects was a pouch I hand sewed for a friend and I made a couple of painted glass candle holders for another." Focusing on her future, Alice is interested in studying the environment and ways to help preserve nature, a passion she shares with many Californians. Here at The Granada, Alice works well with the staff and is a people pleaser to all the residents: "she's always smiling and agreeable." Pleased to please a pleaser with a declaration "Alice Jaramillo, you are the Granada employee of the month," keep smiling.

When the artist, Martin Tang, comes to the Granada, Wednesday August 6th everyone should get a sketch done; it's amazing how young Martin can make you look. Went to a Giants game, we beat the District of Columbia, that's our nation's capital, team "the Capitols." Bengie Molina hit two home runs, not Barry Bonds but no baggage either. Is there any interest in a baseball tour for September? Let Kevin know also do you have suggestions for tours let him know, like the Hilmar Cheese factory? They keep telling the public "Bay Meadows is closed to be redeveloped for real estate use" but every year it's the same, saying this is the last season so the Granada tour will partake in Bay Meadows "last" senior day with the spaghetti and meatball lunch, fun, good luck.

25 lucky Granada gamblers visited River Rock Indian Casino atop Sonoma's Alexander Valley along with the residents of The Broadmoor. If there were any big winners, they're keeping it quiet. If you need anything to make you more comfortable here let me know. My door is always open. Thanks

Tony Davidauskis, manager

Fat the races; beautiful, 70 degrees and a clear sky, maybe? Left our bus at 12:00 and headed south 22 miles to Bay Meadows race track and lunch. Spaghetti with garlic bread and a table in or out near the finish line with a racing form. After the race, off to the paddocks to view your horses for the next race. You can see the horses from the last race cooling off, then they exit the paddock by the entrance of the new group of horses for the next race. Pick up your favorite horse, then it's off to the betting windows to see when they're at the post and they're off. Down the straights and around the turn and here they come, hold your ticket and look at the horse's color, number, listen for a name, as they settle into a race you see your horse's efforts, are they good enough? A mile or so and it's over the finish line. I won't say anything more but "all these people smiling." So join us Thursday, August 14th for five races at Bay Meadows to have fun, this might be the last day you'll have for racing there. Lunch, crossing the finish line, around the paddock, placing your $2.00 complimentary bet from the Granada, it all spells FUN.

August and Gladiolus

The name "Gladiolus" is derived from the Latin word "Gladius", meaning "sword" for the shape of the leaves.

The gladiolus is the birth flower for August; it also represented the Roman gladiators.

The gladiolus flower signifies remembrance. It also expresses infatuation, telling the receiver that he or she "pierces the heart."
