Kevin B. McGlynn, editor

Small savory appetizers served before the meal, customarily with APPETITIFS OR COCKTAILS. They are usually one-or two-bite size and can be cold or hot. Hors d'oeuvre may be in the form of a fancy canape or as simple as a selection of crudites (as celery or carrot sticks). . The word "hors d'oeuvre" is properly used for both the singular and plural forms. The reason is that the term translates literally as (dishes) "outside the work (meal)" and no matter how many dishes there are, there is only one "work." In today's modern parlance, however, the plural is often spoken and written as hors d'oeuvres but no matter how you say it, Jose Anyarin, the Granada chef defines them this way.

A Night in Paris

by Kevin B. McGlynn

I'd like to go to Paris, but then there's all that traveling hence the idea, bring "a Night in Paris" to the Granada. Well for one night what would we do? What do you need? A beautiful dining room, a couple of cabaret performers, some candlelight, fine food and wine and let the evening take care of itself, and that's what we did that special night.

Above and Beyond

The letter came from the City and County of San Francisco, Department of Aging and Adult Services; "the APS (adult protective services) would like to honor you." The first annual "Above and Beyond" reception was followed by the award presentation. The awards were given to people and organizations whose efforts to serve and protect our elders and disabled from abuse and neglect. The award read "To your dedication and ongoing commitment", that's our manager Tony Davidauskis for you.

Cable Car Tour

The motorized Cable Car in front of the Granada awaiting our "happy travelers."

Carmen and Ruth, Natalie and Bob getting an eye full

On a clear day you can see all around you, especially if you are on a motorized cable car like the 33 of us happy travelers. Yes, another Granada Tour hits the open road in a grand tour of San Francisco. The route went like this: first Nob Hill, then through the tunnel to Chinatown thru to North Beach followed by Fisherman's Wharf and Aquatic Park then into the Presidio of San Francisco. We took a break at the Legion of Honor and had some ice cream. We relaxed at this beautiful spot with it's total view of downtown straight in front of us and to the left that big metal thing called the Golden Gate Bridge. Behind us the museum that Alma Spreckle's built, the Legion of Honor, great bathrooms too. After 30 minutes, we set off on the second leg of our tour starting with the newly rebuilt Cliff House and Ocean beach where it was a little windy so we turned left into Golden Gate Park and its 40 shades of green and exited at the Panhandle and the Haight Ashbury. It was enough for anyone and as we returned to the Granada for dinner, the question was "where to next?"

I hear a bird chirp, "Sonoma Valley;" vineyards, majestic old growth redwoods, historic towns.

How does everybody like our theme dinner theater nights? Any suggestions?

Our Giants are having a poor season, I know it's difficult but keep rooting. Question, is Barry coming back? Well remember in our pinch, the Cubs with their great fans, right Chris?

I'll be visiting my mother in Arizona, she'll be 87 this year. You know how beautiful the "City by the Bay" is after you spent a summer's day in Arizona.

Fact is stranger than fiction. David Smith a dinning room employee is also from my hometown, Norwood, Massachusetts. That makes five people from a town of 30,000 - 4,000 miles away have lived at the Granada.

John Daugherty, a new resident, has two very nice daughters that visit him often. Patricia, John's oldest is one of the Directors of the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art and has extended to the Granada a tour of the MOMA, so Kevin our tour director has arranged this tour for the 9th of August, have fun.
