Look at the size of our bus, plenty of room to party and that's what we did. We started by going up Twin Peaks to take a few pictures (see below) on a slightly hazy but always glorious day and surveyed our route across the three bridges: Bay, Richmond San Rafael and Golden Gate. As we started crossing the Bay Bridge, the wine came out then the sour dough and cheese and fruit, next few stops went without care: Treasure Island, across the Richmond San Rafael Bridge, Sausalito and over the Golden Gate Bridge home to dinner. Simple, so join us next time, have some fun, it's all free. Ed.

Granada Super Bowl XLV Party

That time of year for the, February 6th NFL Super Bowl XLV and time for the Granada Super Bowl Party!

Texas Stadium, Arlington Texas host Green Bay Packers vs Pittsburg Steelers

Refreshments will be served. The game begins at 3:20pm on FOX Granada TV Room and the big screen TV. Come join the fun!

Are you ready for some football? The Super Bowl Party is scheduled for February 6th in front of our big screen TV with plenty of refreshments.

Valentine's Day is here too. Sweethearts, I have my share: April is back in school after the Christmas break, Gabby, my San Francisco girl and Mary Angel my lifelong sweetheart are fine. Mom, I don't forget, in fact a long-lost cousin, Nigel from England went to the church where my mom got married during WW II and got a copy the marriage certificate for me! To celebrate Valentine's Day in the Granada we will have a Valentine dinner, something in the shape of a heart.

February 3rd is the Chinese New Year, year of the Rabbit. According to Chinese tradition, the Rabbit brings a year in which you can catch your breath and calm your nerves. It is a time for negotiation. Wish we could be at the SF Giant's spring training, but don't worry we'll have a Granada baseball tour. Remember my door is always open. Thanks

Tony Davidauskis, manager

Have you noticed the hearts at Union Square and around San Francisco?

Each heart is 5 feet tall. The artists chosen for the project got $1,000 apiece from project organizers to turn the blank hearts into something fit to display on street corners and parks all over town, they were first perched in Union Square to whet the public appetite for giant hearts.

Hearts around San Francisco, there's that song about leaving your heart in San Francisco by Tony somebody. The heart, sometimes hard to find, but when you do, you want to leave it in San Francisco for safe keeping, many, many will tell you.

The first batch of hearts went on display at the Civic Center, after that, more hearts were placed around town through the year. Valentine's Day in the "city by the bay" is a good reason for a return to San Francisco or better to live here at The Granada where words like "heart and love" can still mean something, never growing old fashioned or forgotten. Happy Valentine's Day!
