Sonoma Sebastiani Vineyards Tour

by Kevin McGlynn

Charcuterie on the Patio

Stroll the barrel room then relax at the lovely fountain area patio, enjoy a few glasses of Chardonnay, Rose or Cabernet with a wonderful selection of Focaccia bread, sharp cheddar and Monterey Jack cheese with Genoa salami, red grapes and shrimp chips. Our charcuterie and wine experience was the perfect way to enjoy a casual Sonoma afternoon at our Granada pace! Next tour, Sausalito and ice cream floats.

Words to the Wise

- * Front desk is staffed 24 hours a day; there are surveillance cameras around the perimeter of the building.
- * There are no security guards on the premises.
- * Visitors must sign in and out and must leave by 10:00PM exceptions must be cleared by the office, in advance.
- * While terrorism is not an issue, access to guestroom floors is restricted to guests and their visitor(s). Guests are the responsibility of the resident and are to be accompanied by them all the time in the Granada. Guest are not permitted to wander.
- * Keep your door locked at all times whenever you're in your room -- including any deadbolts, security chains. Never prop your door open, no matter how briefly.
- * If someone comes to your door unexpectedly and claims to be hotel staff, call the front desk to make sure the visit was actually authorized. Never open your door to someone until you're sure of their identity; use the peephole instead.
- * If you notice any suspicious activity, call the front desk. Thanks

I had a dream...

I lived in the "heart" of San Francisco.
I had a personal maid
I had as houseman
I had a handyman
I had a cook making 3-meals a day
I had a waiter/waitress
I had a busperson
I had a dish washer
I had a bartender
I had an exercise coach
I had an activities director
I had 'round the clock security
Then I awoke and found I had it all at

The Granada.

Sunday, June 15th is Father's Day, happy Father's Day to all you pops. Men can expect a carnation flower and a steak dinner to say "thanks Dad." June 21st also begins our summer, get ready for the fog. Granada Memorial Day Picnic was May 26th; hope you enjoyed your picnic of:

BBQ FRIED RIBS
MAC & CHEESE
HOT DOGS
with Cole Slaw
Baked Beans
Corn on the Cob
Apple Pie ala mode

We'll have another picnic on July 4th, summer fun. Remember if you want take-away food, order from the front desk but if you are in the dining room, please ask your maitre'd. My April had her wedding shower in Irvine, Ca. collecting an array of household goods. Getting closer and closer to the big day 8.09.14. I appreciate our San Francisco "natural a/c" as I go back and forth to Phoenix. If I could bottle the fog and sell it in Phoenix, I'd be a millionaire. Remember my door is always open. Thanks.
