Have you seen the movie "Seabiscuit?" Bay Meadows was his home track and the location for our "Granada Race Course Tour."

Thursdays at the track are called "Senior Thursdays" and here's the deal; all senior, that's the 40 of us, in for free plus a spaghetti dinner with salad, a roll and drink on the Granada, then post time 1:05 p.m.

But, first let me tell you the story of a lucky man, Ken McGuinness. The bet: horses 1, 2 and 5 - The Great Question - Penny Power - Free Wheeler all 3 year old fillies in that order to win, place and show, that's number 125, Ken is not likely to forget. After studying the official Bay Meadows program, Ken placed a "Trifecta" bet, which you must pick the first three finishers in the EXACT order; so you do all that and place a $1.00 bet and you get $919.30 back. The IRS is sure to immediately collect their fair share and you go back home to the Granada a winner!

That's the ticket, Ken McGuinness.

The IRS at the finish line.

Not the Kentucky Derby but you may see her there.

The next horses to race parade before us, first.

The Gray Lines tour bus was our starting gate.

Carmen, Earnest and Hilary playing.

How did the rest of us do? Well with a field of about 6 or 7 horses for each race, the odd were good enough so we did okay, not as good as Ken, but we all had fun. The post time for the sixth race was 3:40 so we played the sixth race collected some winnings and mounted our bus for the 22 mile trip back home to the Granada. Everyone had such a good time at Bay Meadows that we will return July 6th because the race course might be given up to developers soon and we would miss out on these beautiful animals. My companion for the return journey was the "lucky man himself" and we spent about forty-five minutes tuning up for the next racing session and sharing the story about "the big win" and daily doubles, pick 3's, exactas, quinellas, trifectas, pick 4's and pick 6's. Ed.

Tony's Newsletter Column

Father's Day is coming up and since the ladies got flowers for mother's day there's nothing wrong with giving a Dad a flower too. That's what we'll do. Happy Father's Day!

I went to a ball game recently, but Barry refused to oblige even though I was in the right spot for a clean catch; oh well; go Barry! If you want to go to a game, let Kevin know, he did a baseball park tour last year. A weekday afternoon would be nice. Opera Dinner at the Granada, how did you like that? We'll have more of that, I'm sure, beautiful and shrimp risotto was tasty too.

Our Memorial Day picnic with the chicken and ribs went well, competition coming with our 4th of July picnic, fireworks and all.

The kitchen upgrade continues very well soon we are installing a new grill and ovens. There is a possibility at one point that we may serve cold cuts so we can execute the last part of the installation.

The hall bathroom cabinet works is almost concluded, hope you enjoy the upgrades. Thanks

The Granada Deluxe City Tour included a stop on top of Twin Peaks, for a good 360 degree view of our beautiful city and some pictures too.

Next we went to Treasure Island for another view, and guess what? More pictures.

As you can see from the photos above any way you look at it, we are indeed well situated here at the Granada 1000 Sutter Street San Francisco, Ca.

With his good friend, Evelyn Thomason

Phil Prather doesn't miss much.

lyn is an actress as well.

Leon Yee a WWII vetran.

Steve Herman on the spot.
