We decided to go around the Bay of San Francisco in our deluxe CoachUSA coach which pulled up to our front door. Our adventure starts crossing the Golden Gate Bridge to Marin Headlands and a good place for a picture, ask: Yvonne Weber, Claudius Francis and Richard Beulow. Back on our coach, we headed for the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge and our next stop Treasure Island and a few more views and pictures of: Steven Herman and Yvonne Weber. Then over the Bay Bridge, listening to Vivaldi on the Bay area's classical music station 102.1 FM, all the way up to Twin Peaks for a very high look, seems to have made Dan Lovett happy as well as Kwong Lee and Ruby and Stephen Herman with his scope. Next, home to The Granada with plenty of time to wash up for dinner, I know you have an appetite, we only had ginger ale served on our trip. Next tour to the San Francisco Zoo to see the new tiger enclosure and everything else.

Glide Kids Say Hello

They come to sing and dance for us. After going around the lounge saying hello to everyone, out comes the song and pretty soon they start to dance; what fun! Next all the kids go around and chat with our Granada senior. Spear has a new buddy, David. Bea Digliantoni and Maria are busy talking and so are Sue and Javier at a window table below. After their performance the kids join us for lunch. Today's menu was hot dogs and peanut butter and jelly sandwiches and milk, chocolate pudding and chocolate chip cookies. Questions? The one I got was "is there any ice cream?" We'll see about it for their next visit soon.

Valentine's Way

Celebrating a baby shower is rare for the Granada but here nothing is impossible. They met in the Granada in 2003 working in different departments, fell in love and married in January 2005. Now they will share an offspring around March 2008. Bet it's a beautiful baby, nice story.

One of the beautiful and tasty Valentine's Day chocolate cakes with the raspberry ganache we had with afternoon tea.

A Granada Artist

The Granada is no stranger to a variety of artist. Susan Roberts paints in oils, Susan's next exhibit is at 760 Harrison Street between 4th and 5th streets starting on March 6th. Susan will have an exhibit in The Granada some Sunday soon in addition to our ice cream social, should be interesting.

AGING WELL PROGRAMS

Modern Aging

The definition of "old" just isn't the same as it used to be. Medical advancements, improved nutrition, and the ability to create lives based on our passions and talents have changed how we age, what being older means, and how it looks. Join us for an interactive workshop about these themes and more! Co-sponsored by Kiehl's.

Thursday, March 6 4:00-5:30 pm

Financing the Aging Process

Get help understanding entitlements like Medi-Cal and Medicare, as well as the wide variety of reverse mortgage, financial and tax issues, and long-term care insurance options that are available. This informative workshop explores the different issues related to paying for the care we need as we age.

2008 Is the Year of the Rat!

Tony Davidauskis, manager
Super Tuesday was a busy day at The Granada, politics in the air, absentee ballots, precinct polling station up the street; enough for another 10 months.

Valentine's Day afternoon tea and Chocolate cake with raspberry and chocolate ganache was a hit. This month everyone gets to be Irish for a day and the Kennelly Irish dance troupe will return to click their heels for us. I think Kevin is preparing some Irish delights for refreshments for our St. Pat's Party.

My Mom's okay at Central Gardens, they just had a tour of Sausalito just like us, without the ice cream. Private tours of Central Gardens can be arranged just ask.

Did you know that Gene our assistant manager since January 6th is a grandfather 4 times. I'm still looking for #1 but with a scholar and an actress, prospects look dim, congratulations to Gene.

March is a busy month with tours to the Zoo, to see the new tiger enclave and to Bay Meadows to watch the horses run, have fun and make some money.

Thanks.
