you, holy youth, to come and walk among us once more."
He began his studies for the priesthood. He was ordained by St. Germanus, the Bishop of Auxerre, whom he had studied under for years.
Later, Patrick was ordained a bishop, and was sent to take the Gospel to Ireland. He arrived in Ireland March 25, 433, at Slane. One legend says that he met a chieftain of one of the tribes, who tried to kill Patrick. Patrick converted Dichu (the chieftain) after he was unable to move his arm until he became friendly to Patrick. Patrick began preaching the Gospel throughout Ireland, converting many. He and his disciples preached and converted thousands and began building churches all over the country. Kings, their families, and entire kingdoms converted to Christianity when hearing Patrick's message.

Patrick was born around 385 in Scotland, probably Kilpatrick. His parents were Calpurnius and Conchessa, who were Romans living in Britian in charge of the colonies.

As a boy of fourteen or so, he was captured during a raiding party and taken to Ireland as a slave to herd and tend sheep. Ireland at this time was a land of Druids and pagans. He learned the language and practices of the people who held him.

Patrick's captivity lasted until he was twenty, when he escaped after having a dream from God in which he was told to leave Ireland by going to the coast. There he found some sailors who took him back to Britian, where he reunited with his family.

He had another dream in which the people of Ireland were calling out to him "We beg

Scottsdale, Arizona is the location of our San Francisco Giant's spring training camp where they are preparing for another season; this year we go for the pennant once more. Again we will also have another Granada Baseball Tour with the AT&T's third inning billboard reading "Welcome Granada Seniors" and our great seats and treats. Gung Hay Fat Choy, year of the snake, to all you out there and Happy Saint Patrick's Day, Ireland forever. There will be plenty of corned beef and cabbage and Irish stew, followed by green ice cream. Spring time and spring cleaning; any requirements for deep cleaning or repairs, leaks of any kind we'll fix them. April's boyfriend, Brennan, was in town visiting a cardiologist family member at UCSF; we always like to see him. Our Spanish Fiesta went well. Ole! Ernesto for some great singing and the Flamenco dancers will return in April. Remember my door is always opened, enjoy the spring. Thanks
