Exploratorium at the Palace of Fine Arts

Take a trip to the northwest corner of San Francisco and you find yourself at the Palace of Fine Arts and that's what we did. Housed in the Palace you will find the Exploratorium and thanks to Charles Schwab, who was our host, we explored. Below is the floor plan which was easy to follow, all in a straight line surrounded by several kids. 2- hours was enough, our motor coach then took us over Golden Gate Bridge for some ice cream and soda and a view.

As you can see everyone was busy checking out all the exhibits. After a little rest we went off to Vista Point located on the Marin side of the bridge, a great view! The driver pulls up sideways so you could view seated, what luxury. Gary Galvin says he likes this picture of himself with our city in the background. You're

Prelude To Fame

During the Young Ireland disorders of 1848, nine young men were captured, tried and convicted of treason against the Queen. The sentence was death.

The presiding judge read the names of the condemned: "Charles Duffy, Morris Lyene, Patrick Donahue, Thomas McGee, John Mitchell, Thomas Meagher, Richard O'Gorman, Terence McManus, Michael Ireland. Have you anything to say before the court passes sentence?"

Thomas Meagher had been chosen to speak for them all: "My Lord, this is our first offense, but not our last. If you will be easy with us this once, we promise on our word as gentlemen to try to do better the next time. And, the next time, sure we won't be fools enough to get caught."

The indignant judge sentenced them to be hanged by the neck. But passionate protest from all over the world forced Queen Victoria to commute the sentence. The men were transported for life to the penal colonies of the then savage Australia.

In 1871 a Sir Charles Duffy was elected prime minister of the Australian state of Victoria. To her amazement, Queen Victoria learned that this was the same Charles Duffy who had been transported for high treason 26 years before. She demanded the records of the others who had been transported and this is what she learned. Meagher was governor of Montana, McManus and Donahue were brigadier generals in the United States Army. O'Gorman was the governor general of New Foundland. Morris Lyene had been attorney general of Australia, to which office Michael Ireland succeeded. McGee was president of the Council for the Dominion of Canada. Mitchell was a prominent New York politician who became the father of the Mitchell who was mayor of New York.

Tony's Newsletter Column

Thanksgiving fall on Thursday, November 23rd this year so we will have our traditional Thanksgiving Dinner the day before, Wednesday, to allow everyone time to enjoy the holiday with their relatives.

My family news: Charity Bell, my niece, the one who was in that Harvard Gazette article, is getting married and my other niece, Faith, is having a baby. My daughter April is working as a T.A., teacher's assistant, at San Francisco State College. My mother, Mary, now lives at the Granada. A special thanks to Bea Degliantoni and all who are being so kind to my mom. I see River Rock Casino will be toured again by the combined Broadmoor/Granada swing gamblers the views of the Alexander Valley from the dining room there are splendid, bon appetite! A friend of mine owned a place in Geyserville where his partner is an artist, priestess, non-demoninational minister and breeder of exotic cats; not on the tour. Christmas is coming and we're looking for a good Santa Claus this year. Any volunteers? Thanks.
