Giants sweep Tigers for World Series

The San Francisco Giants, who survived six elimination games in the playoffs, closed out a four-game sweep of the Detroit Tigers with a 4-3 victory in 10 innings Sunday night to win their second World Series in three years. Marco Scutaro drove in Ryan Theriot with a two-out RBI single in the 10th for the winning score. Theriot had opened the inning with a single off Detroit closer Phil Coke, pitching his second inning, and advanced to second on a sacrifice bunt. Sergio Romo got the save for the Giants, who defeated the Texas Rangers in five games in 2010 for their first World Series crown since moving to San Francisco in 1958. Pablo Sandoval, who hit three home runs in Game 1, was named MVP of the World Series. "We're just happy right now," Buster Posey said. "This tonight was a fitting way for us to end it. Those guys played hard; they didn't stop." So the team that swept the Yankees was swept by our GIANTS. Next the NFL!

Artist visits the Granada

Gerrard Wilkinson was born in Malaysia (1977) and raised in Wellington, New Zealand. He was introduced to photography at a young age by his late Grandfather's 1960's fine art photography. "I grew up with black & white photography in the family. I remember my Grandfather's darkroom with all his pictures and paintings around the house. There were awards from around the world. I didn't think much of it at the time. You take these things for granted as a kid. Now I fully appreciate the immediacy and intimacy of black & white portrait photography. His work is my inspiration". Gerrard's portfolio will soon be available at www.gerrardwilkinson.com. Gerrard photographed 15 Granada residents, here are two wonderful samples: Olean and Jim.

Smoking is not allowed in any public area of the building - this includes elevators, hallways, hall bathrooms, lobby area etc. It also includes the front of the building (see photo above) and the front steps. The designated smoking area is the corner of Hyde and Sutter (on the Hyde Street side of that corner, see photo above). If you have a shared room and your roommate is a non-smoker-you cannot smoke in the room.

We did it again!
 World Series Champions San Francisco Giants, how sweet is that? Did anyone go to the parade? Now the 49ers are making a run as well, so good; time for another Super Bowl too? Pumpkins, pumpkins, pumpkins, so on we go with our Halloween dress up party and Columbus Day we celebrated by having our "Italian theme dinner." Rainy season is here so if you have any window problems or you see a drop or a drip let me know, we'll fix it pronto. Pigeon feeding is still a concern, so please, no feeding, except in the park, you know it is against the LAW. Flu season is around so make special attempts to wash your hands often and please cover your cough especially in the elevator. Not exactly "American Idol" but we're looking for a Santa Claus volunteer? April continues to be a world traveler going to Puerto Rico in Nov. and St. Louis in Dec. and Seattle in January giving her paper on American Literature before 1865. My door is always open.
 Thanks, Go '9ers!
