London Bridges Dinner

So you want to go to London but there's all that travelling so we created "London Bridges," a Dinner.

Ever been piped into a diningroom? Well everyone in the Granada was, that night. Roast Beef, Dove Sole and Shepard's Pie poured forth from the kitchen delivered on the trays by bowler hatted waiters, pip, pip.

The castles in England didn't have appetite and strengthen the limbs. Liani English fare, Bill doesn't seem to mind Anyarin (right) and his assistant, Fernando, with lady fingers and gelatin cream with strawberries.

it any better. A piper to stir the and Lester are happy to serve the either as well as Jeff, above. Chef with the sweet, a homemade trifle

The reacquainted Gene Bishop

Gene Bishop

Gene Bishop rejoins The Granada family as our newest Assistant Manager after a five year absence. As many will remember, Gene started as the Dining Room Manager way back in 1998, when he first moved to our beautiful city by the bay.

Originally from a small town located in the midst of the cornfields of Illinois, Gene brings to The Granada a vast wealth of hotel experience to enable him to confidently step into his new role. He most recently comes from The Gaylord Hotel where he worked as assistant manager. Anxious to become reacquainted with The Granada, Gene asks "please be patient as I try to remember all the names from the past and the new ones."

Welcome back!

Prayer for those growing old

Lord, Thou knowest that I am growing older.

Keep me from becoming talkative and possessed with the idea that I must express myself on every subject.

Release me from the craving to straighten out everyone's affairs.

Keep me from the recital of endless details. Give me wings to get the point.

Seal my lips when I am inclined to tell of my aches and pains. They are increasing with the years, and my love to speak of them grows sweeter as time goes by.

Teach me the glorious lesson that, occasionally, I may be wrong.

Make me thoughtful but not noisy, helpful but not bossy.

With my vast store of wisdom and experience, it does seem a pity not to use it all. But Thou knowest, Lord, that I want and need a few friends at the end.

Tony's Newsletter Column

Oktoberfest will be celebrated in a musical theme dinner with many German favorites, that's October 11th. Don't forget to get your costume ready for the Granada Halloween Costume Party on the 31st.

Gene Bishop has returned to the Granada in a new management role. Please join me in welcoming him back to our community. Meanwhile, Blietek is showing great prowess in accounting and you will see Chris Wood working at the front desk.

SBC SF vs. Padres "take me out to the ballgame tour" was a success, out of twenty tickets fifteen were to first time fans to our beautiful new ballpark. Go Giants!

Larry Richards tells me everything went well on the Reno trip to the Sands Regency Casino-Hotel.

Unfortunately Paul Ramses a friend of mine who you often saw in the dining room with me passed away. Long time desk clerk Tom Pesoli R.I.P. also.
Thanks
