My Three Chefs

by Kevin McGlynn

Buckingham Palace boasts serving 550 meals daily; well The Granada serves 700 meals daily. From right to left we present our three chefs: Juan Esparsa, Victor Dieguez and Juan Meono.

Juan Meono, from Peru came to The Granada in 2004 - favorite dish: Lomo Saltado

Victor Dieguez, from Peru started working at The Granada in 2002 - favorite dish: Roasted Tom Turkey with all the trimmings

Head Chef Juan Esparsa, from New York City took command of the kitchen in 2008 - favorite dish: Cannelloni

Noontime Concerts

are presented weekly at 12:30 on Tuesdays in Old Saint Mary's at 660 California Street at Grant Avenue. 160 years ago Old St. Mary's was both the first cathedral and the tallest building in the new state of California. Restored after San Francisco's devastating earthquake and fire of 1906, it was rededicated 1909. The historic cathedral remains an important San Francisco landmark and a beautiful and serene setting for concerts so come on by. For those that can not travel easily, how about the Granada TV lounge for a 45 minute video recording of the concerts, on Mondays at 6:00 pm in the TV room, come enjoy.

Anyway You Look at It

Going around San Francisco in a bus is not too difficult. Some Cheddar & Swiss cheese with crackers and spread add some plump white seedless grapes and wash it down with Granada red and white wine, ginger ale and or sparkling cider. We went for the top immediately, Twin Peaks for our first beautiful peek of San Francisco, just ask Laura or Mark below. Then on to the Bay Bridge and Treasure Island where Kerry took his picture with S.F. at his back. Bette didn't need to get out of our deluxe tour bus to view it all. Come on our next tour!

September 1st marks my 27th year managing The Granada. I can remember my first day like it was yesterday, the 1986 Red Sox were one strike away from winning the World Series then the ball went thru Bill Buckley's legs. The Sox got revenge in 2004. Grandparent's Day is Sunday September 8th celebration includes an ice cream social and something "special" for dinner to say thanks to all the Granada grandparents. While we are talking food, here comes the Labor Day, the 2nd, picnic with Fried Chicken, BBQ-Ribs, Hot Dogs, potato salad, corn on the cob, coleslaw, baked beans; everything except the ants. Think green when you go through your day, turn off lights or water from running too long, recycle when you can, and be green proud. Hard to believe that the holiday season is upon us again, what do we have? Rosh Hashanah, Halloween, Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Years, looks like a celebration every month, can you take it? This is one of our best months for weather so enjoy it!

My door is always open.
